

Dadabhai Naoroji, 1871 “London Speech”

DO NOW:

PART I: Since the speech given by Dadabhai Naoroji in 1871 is a primary source, examine the POINT OF VIEW of this document. Carefully reread the introductory biographical paragraph.

Who is he?

What is it about him that you would expect to influence what he says in the speech?

Connection to his background?

(Highlight/annotate important information from the introductory paragraph)

PART II: Look over the speech and identify any of the “credits” or “debts” that seem to be a particular reflection of Naoroji’s point of view. WHY?